Re: Harold Weisberg v. United States Department of Justice, et al., U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil No. 718-70

Dear Mr. Eardley:

This will acknowledge your letter of July 30th.

I have checked with Mr. Weisberg and both he and I recall very plainly that the file folder in which the papers were kept, and which we got from your office, was covered with a number of markings, including "Confidential" and "Refer to letter 12/10/69." As these notations are of great interest to Mr. Weisberg as a writer, and as the file contained no letter of 12/10/69, it will be preferable to let the Court decide upon the disposition of the matter.

Sincerely yours,

Bernard Fensterwald, Jr.
